

IACCM 2015 Conference: Call for Volunteers

The Conference topic „Contemporary Approaches in Training & Education for Cross-Cultural Competence – potentials, challenges and its limits“ aims to bring together scientists and practitioners alike in order to foster the dialogue between practice and theory in the cross-cultural field. Further information can be found at the conference webpage here!

The Conference will be held 1-3 October 2015 at Vienna University of Economics and Business (WU Wien) and is organised in cooperation between IACCM (<http://www.wu.ac.at/iaccm>) and SIETAR Austria (www.sietar.at).

The Society for Intercultural Education, Training and Research, (SIETAR) Austria is a leading organisation dedicated to the promotion of interculturalism and promotes the ideas of intercultural understanding in Austria. The Society subscribes to the mission of the European and global network of SIETAR organisations around the world and pursues the following goals:

- To enhance the awareness of intercultural issues in policy-making, business and education.
- To contribute to the solution of societal problems by facilitating communication between peoples of different cultures,
- To provide multi-disciplinary, professional expertise in intercultural issues in practice and research by establishing a network of intercultural specialists,
- To contribute to the development of standards for intercultural work,
- To support publications, personal and professional exchanges, research, projects as well as regional, national and international conferences and other events.

You are....

- Interested in getting involved in the organisation of a prestigious conference organisation within the intercultural field!
- Enthusiastic about working with practitioners and academics from all over the world!
- Fascinated by expanding your network by supporting an NGO!

Then send us a short motivation letter (max. 1 page) indicating how you might support us with your expertise and enthusiasm with concerns regarding organisation and communication of our IACCM2015 conference!
